

Stable home and school placements are the top protective factors for children with FASD. Come out and learn more.

Tues. Nov 20 2018

Series 1: The Basics: Understanding FASD

Tues Nov 27 2018

Series 2: FASD Intervention Principles—Best Practices “What to do when...”

Tues Dec 4 2018

Series 3: Advocacy—Promoting School Success and Transition to Adulthood

Locations

Day Training offered 9:30pm-12:00pm at Children’s Aid Society of Hamilton 26 Arrowsmith Rd Hamilton ON

Cost

$75.00 includes the cost for all 3 training series for professional and caregivers.

Payable to FASD HAMILTON

Please register with Viola Galamini at 905-525-4311 ext 223 or vgalamini@rygiel.ca

Presenters are members from the Hamilton FASD Community Resource Team

FETAL ALCOHOL SPECTRUM DISORDER THREE PART TRAINING SERIES

Daytime Sessions

FASD Education & Training

FASD is the leading cause of developmental disability among Canadian children.

Dr. Sterling Clarren an FASD expert says that FASD is the most challenging disability a person can have. Come out to this Three Part Series and learn more. These sessions are designed for persons parenting a child with FASD as well as those working professionally with them in a school or community based program.

Learn to Work Differently, Not Harder

www.fasdhamilton.ca